

COME CELEBRATE!

Who: The Presbytery of New Covenant

Where: Pines Presbyterian Church—12751 Kimberley Lane, Houston, Texas

When: Sunday afternoon, August 2, from 4:30-6:30 pm.

Why: To hear stories from the many work projects that will make up the Weekend of Service and Celebration for our Presbytery

What: Dinner and a time of worship and celebration

RSVP: Cindy Houlihan, at 713.467.2234, or cindy@pinespc.org

GOD IS AT WORK!
DON'T MISS THIS CHANCE TO CELEBRATE, GIVE THANKS, AND PRAY FOR CONTINUED
BLESSING AS WE OFFER OUR LIVES
IN SERVICE TO OUR LORD.

WE HAVE MUCH TO CELEBRATE

At a local park in Beaumont clothes will be distributed and hamburgers and cold drinks shared with the homeless.

In Freeport, Lake Jackson, Brazoria, and Galveston congregations will do the on-going work of helping people recover from Hurricane Ike.

In Nacogdoches and the Woodlands volunteers will be working with Habitat for Humanity.

Gulf Prairie will be the site of a back to school project collecting clothes and school supplies.

Houston will have projects that include distributing sack lunches to day workers, campus clean-up for local schools, a wellness fair, a food pantry and computer room, Habitat for Humanity, and much more.
