

Introducing our Candidate for Stated Clerk

The Reverend Lynn Hargrove

A passionate, bold, energetic Christian disciple

Lynn has a Bachelor of Arts degree from Trinity University where she majored in journalism and received a Master of Divinity degree from Austin Presbyterian Theological Seminary. She serves as the part-time Stated Supply pastor for St. Giles Presbyterian Church, Houston and a Vision Consultant and Future Story facilitator for the presbytery. She will serve as 40% part-time Stated Clerk. Before seminary, she served as an elder of First Presbyterian Church, Houston where she moderated the Presbyterian Women and coordinated a $13 million capital campaign. Lynn is trained in mediation and critical incident stress management, keeps good records and has strong analytical abilities.

The search committee that enthusiastically nominated Lynn praised her for talents that fit the job needs, the ability to look beyond herself for answers, knowledge of this Presbytery and its workings, a great sense of humor, and fairness and balance in dealing with people across the political and theological spectrum.
